The Congressional Anti-Semitism Task Force (CASTF)
For the 110th Congress:

As Co-Chairmen of the Congressional Anti-Semitism Task Force (CASTF), we invite you to join the bipartisan Congressional Anti-Semitism Task Force in the 110th Congress. With your support, CASTF will underscore the dimensions and impact of anti-Semitism worldwide and highlight the idea that religious freedom embodies the ideals of democracy.

As an active member of the Congressional Anti-Semitism Task Force you will help promote religious tolerance throughout the world and give a strong voice in the United States Congress to those whose basic religious rights and freedoms have been persecuted for centuries.

Your support will help the Congressional Anti-Semitism Task Force bring to light numerous acts of anti-Semitism occurring around the world. CASTF letters addressed to administration officials, international leaders, and intergovernmental bodies, such as the United Nations, will make a difference. You will not only be supporting key principles of religious freedom as codified in international covenants, but will also help shed light on the actions that are at the root of some of humanities gravest crimes.

Joining the Congressional Anti-Semitism Task Force will allow you and your staff to participate in CASTF Briefings. These briefings will give Members a chance to learn more about the phenomenon of anti-Semitism and its detrimental effect on society. With the help of potential national and international media coverage of our briefings, your statements at these events can reach governments, officials and citizens in many countries, and give them the assurance that Members of the United States House of Representatives are fighting adamantly against Anti-Semitism wherever it occurs.

In addition, CASTF:

- Lists Members on our public CASTF website. The CASTF website is part of the widely visited Congressional Human Rights Caucus website, which also provides congressional staff with human rights research tools and expert testimonies from CASTF and other Congressional Human Rights Caucus Briefings.
- Provides Members an opportunity to request and chair a CASTF Members' briefing to explore their interest in combating anti-Semitism. These briefings will be prepared and organized "hearing style" on your behalf by the Task Force Directors in cooperation with your office. All Members who attend CASTF briefings can submit their statements to the CASTF Webpage.
- Gives Members access to our extensive Task Force email list-serve, which includes congressional offices, NGOs, the media and academia, to seek support for their religious freedom initiatives (letters, bills, etc.).
- Provides advice on anti-Semitism issues to our Members, including background briefing papers, contact addresses in the religious freedom community, important governmental and non-governmental reports, etc.

Please fill out the form on the back of this letter to continue your fight against anti-Semitism by joining the Congressional Anti-Semitism Task Force in the 110th Congress!
